Postcards to Fred Wright, 1904–1918

182 picture postcards from the Wright family of Forest Glen, Maryland

These picture postcards were sent to Frederick William Wright (1894–1970), and saved by him, from his boyhood in Forest Glen, Montgomery County, Maryland, through his college years and the end of the First World War. Fred was the youngest of the five children of Dr. George H. Wright (Cornell, 1882), who ran a sanitarium at Forest Glen (the Wright Sanitarium, also called Carroll Springs Sanitarium), and Jessie W. (Waite) Wright (1857–1952), herself a physician. His brothers and sisters were Wallace W. (b. 1885), George Van Valkenburg ("Van", b. 1888, by 1917 the sanitarium's superintendent), Lucy (b. about 1889) and Dr. Katherine W. Wright (b. about 1892), a psychiatrist in Chicago.

The cards follow Fred from "Master Fred Wright" to the Maryland Agricultural College at College Park (today the University of Maryland), where from 1912 to 1915 he studied mechanical engineering, joined Kappa Alpha, rose to cadet lieutenant and was athletic editor of the 1915 yearbook; to his father's university, Cornell, where he entered Sibley College in 1915 and graduated in Mechanical Engineering in June 1917; then through summer work in 1917, officers' training at Camp Meade in 1918, and an unmailed card from Ochtendung, Germany, written in December 1918. They come from his parents, his brothers and sisters, and a wide circle of friends.

Fred in the 1915 Reveille, the yearbook of the Maryland Agricultural College: "He doesn't say much, 'tis clear / He'll make a first rate engineer."

Fred was the father of Mary Alice (Wright) Wilson. The cards were scanned and transcribed by her son, Rick Wilson, in 2026. Transcriptions keep the original spelling; [?] marks a word that could not be read with confidence, and dates come from the postmarks unless noted.

1. Whitehall Building, New York.

November 15, 1904 · Fred was 10 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> I stopped and looked at this building on my way to the Aquarium from Kathy

From	Kathy (probably Katherine, Fred's sister) Fred's sister
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright, Forest Glen, Montgomery Co., Md.
Postmark	New York, N.Y. NOV 15 1904, 10 PM
Place	Whitehall Building, New York, NY
Notes	Undivided-back card: the pencil message is written in the margins around the picture. Ends 'from Kathy' along the faint lower edge: probably his sister Katherine, then about 12, visiting New York. 1-cent Franklin stamp, 1903 issue. Postmark Nov 15.

2. Union Square, New York

June 12, 1905 · Fred was 11 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Dear Freddie
> You had gone to dreamland when [I] came out to say goodby [?] [?] [?] my love + a kiss. Martha.

From	Martha
To	Master Freddie Wright. Forest Glen. Maryland
Postmark	Baltimore, MD JUN 12 9-PM 1905
Place	Union Square, New York, NY
Notes	Postmarked 1905, filed in 1908. Undivided back: message along the bottom of the picture, partly struck through by the cancel. Martha had visited and left after 'Freddie' was asleep: a young child then.

3. Hudson River Steamers, at Albany, N. Y.

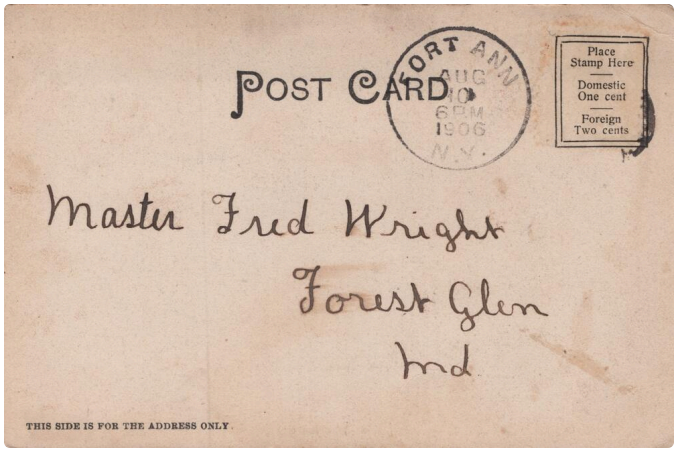
August 10, 1906 · Fred was 12



This is the boat I came up on.
your truly Bill

From	Bill
To	Master Fred Wright Forest Glen Md
Postmark	Fort Ann, N.Y. AUG 10 1906, 6 PM
Place	Albany, NY
Notes	Undivided back: message written under the picture. Location is the view shown (steamer C. W. Morse at Albany); a second, partial circular postmark (AUG) is struck across the picture. Stamp missing from the stamp box. Bill writes to 'Master' Fred, so Fred was a boy.

4. Lake Nebo, Lower Adirondacks. P. O. West Fort Ann, N Y.

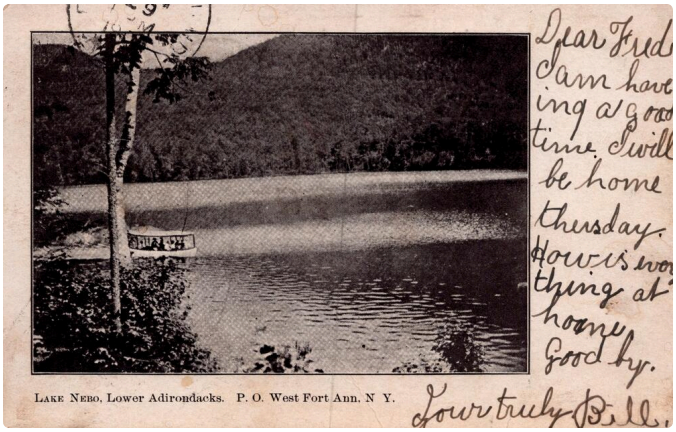
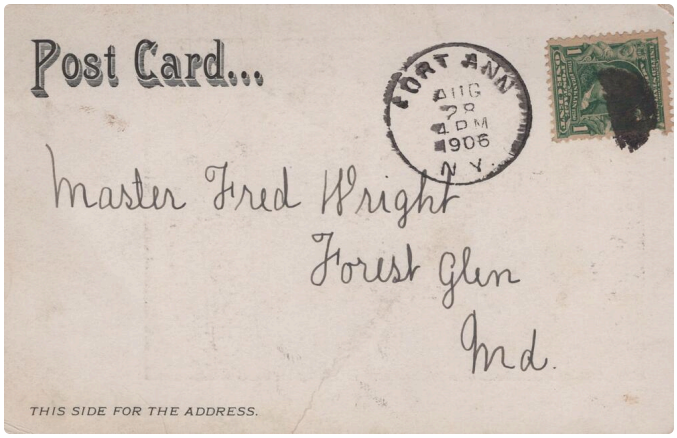
August 28, 1906 · Fred was 12 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902





Dear Fred
I am haveing a good time I will be home thursday.
How is every thing at home. Good by.
Your truly Bill.

From	Bill
To	Master Fred Wright Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Fort Ann, N.Y. AUG 28 4 PM 1906
Place	Lake Nebo, West Fort Ann, NY
Notes	Undivided back: message beside the picture. Postmark day read as 28 (could be 23); 'haveing' and 'every thing' as written ('every' partly off the edge). Same Bill as 0001, writing from the Fort Ann area; 'be home thursday' suggests Bill lived with Fred (brother or family member?).

5. A Happy Easter

1907 (approximate) · Fred turned 13 that year

> Mr Fred Wright
> Mrs S[?]mpson [?]

From Mrs S[?]mpson

Notes Embossed Easter card with white calla lilies; never mailed (no stamp or postmark), so probably handed over. Only Fred's name and the signer are written; signer read as 'Mrs Simpson' or 'Mrs Thompson'. Printed in the U.S.A., card 401. No location.

6. Green Tree Inn, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.

January 28, 1907 · Fred was 12 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> This is a lovely spot. How are the cats?

From	unsigned sender
Probably	possibly Maybelle, by handwriting: 'glen' with a small g and a rounded 'Mont. Co.' as on Maybelle's cards
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Forest Glen, Mont. Co. Md.
Postmark	Philadelphia, PA JAN 2[?] 1-AM 1907
Place	Green Tree Inn, Germantown, Philadelphia, PA
Notes	Undivided back: message under the picture. Unsigned; the day of the postmark is partly covered (Jan 20-29).

7. Zoo in Highland Park, Pittsburg Pa.

April 7, 1907 · Fred was 12 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Dear Fred, Here is a picture of the Zoo here. Van says he has never been there so we may go. He is well but has to study hard. It is cold and windy upon this hill but nice in warm weather. Love to all [?]

From	unsigned sender
To	Master Fred Wright Forest Glen Maryland
Postmark	Pittsburg, PA APR 7 6-PM 1907
Place	Highland Park Zoo, Pittsburgh, PA
Notes	Undivided back: message in the side panel of the picture. Van, who 'has to study hard', is also named on 1908_Postcards_0005 ('I guess Van told you'): probably a family member away at school in Pittsburgh; signature at the bottom is faint and cut off.

8. Lafayette's Statue, Washington, D. C.

September 10, 1907 · Fred was 13

> Hello Fred:
> I hope you have had as nice a vacation as I have. Do you think you will come to the Brightwood School this yr. I hope so.
> yours Stella Moudy.

From	Stella Moudy schoolmate, Brightwood School, Washington
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Washington, D.C. (Station F) SEP 10 7-PM 1907
Place	Lafayette Square, Washington, DC
Notes	Stella asks if Fred will come to the Brightwood School (Washington, D.C.) this year: a schoolmate. Forest Glen receiving postmark. Stamp missing.

9. Francis Scott Key Monument.

September 16, 1907 · Fred was 13 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Balt. Md; Sept. 1[6?] [?]
> Am having a delightful visit here with relatives & friends: Greetings from Miss Schl[?]f

From	Miss Schl[?]f
To	Master Fred Wright Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Baltimore, MD SEP 16 9-PM 1907
Place	Francis Scott Key Monument, Baltimore, MD
Notes	Message written in the margin under the picture. Signature unclear: Schlerf / Schleif / Schlorf. Possibly a teacher ('Miss').

10. To my sweet Valentine

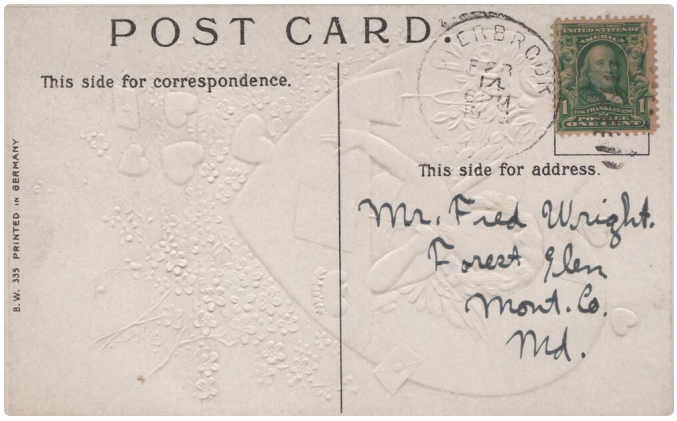
1908 (approximate) · Fred turned 14 that year · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902



From	unsigned sender
Probably	possibly Maybelle, by handwriting: 'glen' with a small g and a rounded 'Mont. Co.' as on Maybelle's cards
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Forest Glen Mont. Co. Md.
Postmark	[Ov]erbrook (probably Overbrook, Philadelphia, PA) FEB 14, year illegible
Place	Overbrook, PA
Notes	Unsigned embossed valentine (cupid writing a letter); no message, only the address. Postmark year not legible, so dated by folder.

11. Sunset and Sugar Loaf Mountain on "The Switzerland Trail of America," The Colorado & Northwestern Railroad, Denver to Eldora and Ward.

September 17, 1908 · Fred was 14 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Dear Fred; This is one of the postals Mrs. Day gave me. Isn't it pretty. I guess Van told you how Nancy kicked going down the hill by [?] [?] horse. Love, [Ruth?]

From	[Ruth?]
To	Mr. Fred Wright Forest Glen Md. U.S.A.
Postmark	Cape Henry, VA SEP 17 4 PM 1908
Place	Sugar Loaf Mountain, Boulder County, CO
Notes	Day gave me'. Message written down the right margin. Signature unclear (Ruth? Lucy?). Van is also named on 1907_Postcards_0005; Nancy may be a horse.

12. Thanksgiving Greetings, child with turkey

November 25, 1908 · Fred was 14 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Hello Fred.
> I saw your uncle Frank in town yesterday and he told me you were all well down that way. I wish I could see you and Kathryn. Rachel and I are planing to have a pretty good time here next Christmas.
> Wish you could come [?]
> Love to Allie and all.

From	unknown sender (signature cut off)
To	Mr. Fred Wright Forest Glen. Md.
Postmark	Cazenovia, N.Y. NOV 25 9:30 AM 1908
Place	Cazenovia, NY
Notes	The last line and signature run off the bottom edge (only 'T[?] & [?]' visible); 'Love to Allie and all' is written up the left margin. Mentions Fred's uncle Frank (who had been in Cazenovia), Kathryn (probably Fred's sister), Rachel and Allie. Same Cazenovia correspondent as 1908_Postcards_0006.

13. Cazenovia, N.Y. Owahgena Club Park

December 22, 1908 · Fred was 14 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Dear Fred. Don't you think it is about time you wrote to me? I suppose you remember you owe me a letter. Elizabeth is fine and says she will write soon. She has been awfully busy with her lessons. I wish you were here to have some of the skating and coasting. It is simply great. I have had two [dandy?] sleigh rides with cousin Will. Rachel [?]

From	unknown sender (perhaps Rachel)
To	Mr. Fredrick William Wright. Forest Glen. Mont. Co. Md.
Postmark	Cazenovia, N.Y. DEC 22 5:30 PM 1908
Place	Owahgena Club Park, Cazenovia, NY
Notes	Undivided-style card: message around the picture. The last line runs off the bottom edge; 'Rachel' at the very end may be the signature. Gives Fred's full middle name, William. Mentions Elizabeth and 'cousin Will'. Same Cazenovia correspondent as 1908_Postcards_0002.

14. A merry Christmas, snowman with mistletoe

December 23, 1908 · Fred was 14 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Series of 1902

> Wishing you a merry Christmas - we'd got lots of snow and [are?] having a lovely time. wish you could visit me sometime > your cousin Eleanor.

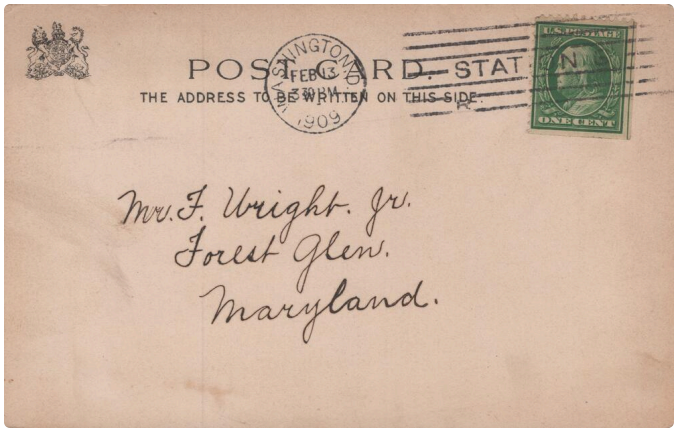
From	cousin Eleanor
To	Frederick W. Wright Forest Glen Montgomery Co. Maryland
Postmark	Denver, Colo. DEC 23 10-PM 1908
Place	Denver, CO
Notes	Message written sideways (rotated) in the correspondence half; the address half is upright. Eleanor signs as Fred's cousin, writing from Denver.

15. Valentine Greetings, Happy Hooligan fishing

February 13, 1909 · Fred was 14 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908



Alfred W. S.

From	Alfred W. S.
To	Mr. F. Wright. Jr. Forest Glen. Maryland.
Postmark	Washington, D.C. (Station N) FEB 13 3:30 PM 1909
Place	Washington, DC
Notes	Comic valentine (F. Opper's Happy Hooligan); only the signature 'Alfred W. S.' is written. Addressed to 'F. Wright Jr.', so Fred was a junior (his father presumably also Frederick).

16. Paris — Colonne de Juillet, Place de la Bastille

February 26, 1909 · Fred was 14

> (Feb. 26, 1909.)
> Dear Fred,- Altho' I have not found time to write you a letter I am going to write a postal anyway. I am having a fine time over here, but have a hard time keeping Wallace in order and he falls in love with all the girls. How is "Pluga" getting along?
> Eleanor.
> Congratulations on your fine marks at school. You are quite a student. I should love to [?] you a few times if you [?] some day. If you have a chance write. Much love. E.

From	Eleanor
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Forest Glen, Mont. Co. U.S.A. Maryland. (c/o Dr. Wright.)
Postmark	Paris XIV, Av. d'Orléans, France 28-2-09, 16h
Place	Place de la Bastille, Paris, France
Notes	Message starts on the address side and continues sideways across the picture. Addressed 'c/o Dr. Wright', so Fred's father (or a relative in the house) was a doctor. Eleanor may be the cousin Eleanor of 1908_Postcards_0001 (Denver); Wallace is with her in Paris (brother?). 'Pluga' is perhaps a pet. French stamp removed.

17. Bank of Pittsburg, Pittsburg, Pa.

June 16, 1909 · Fred was 15 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908

> Dear Fred.
> Excuse blot, but I am in a hurry to get to commencement. How are the ducks?
> With love. K.

From	K. Fred's sister
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Pittsburg, PA (Uptown Station) JUN 16 1-PM 1909
Place	Bank of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA
Notes	Ink blot across the message ('Excuse blot'). Signed only 'K.' (Kathryn? see 1908_Postcards_0002); she was hurrying to a commencement in Pittsburgh, and the 1907 Pittsburg card (1907_Postcards_0005) mentions Van studying there. Corner damage.

18. Marken.

July 10, 1909 · Fred was 15

> Dear Fred, July 10.
> How is this for a Dutchman? They dont all look like this. Here in the Hague, they look very much like home folks. Hague is a beautiful place, + so clean. Mr. C. leaves us tonight for London. sorry, he is a good companion. weather still on the bum.
> Love
> Papa

From	Papa Fred's father
To	Fred W. Wright Forest Glen Maryland U.S.A.
Postmark	's-Gravenhage (The Hague), Netherlands 10.7.09 5-6 N
Place	Marken, Netherlands
Notes	From Fred's father ('Papa'), travelling in Europe in summer 1909 with a 'Mr. C.' who left for London. Stamp removed.

19. Powhatan pennant

October 4, 1909 · Fred was 15 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908

> Dear Fred. I am very sorry I could not [see?] you before I came away. Now please write soon and tell me about your trip. Love to all the [?]

From	unsigned sender
To	Mr. Fred Wright Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Charlestown, W.Va. OCT 4 [9?] AM 1909
Place	Charles Town, WV
Notes	Embossed purple-and-white 'POWHATAN' pennant: Powhatan College was a women's college in Charles Town, W.Va., so the sender was probably a sister or girl relative starting school there. Message written sideways in the left margin; the end runs off the edge, no signature visible.

20. Thanksgiving Day: "I'm a firm believer in self-protection." (turkey with pistols)

November 24, 1909 · Fred was 15 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908

> Dear Fred. Hope I will see you soon. Keep those little kids straight out there but stop play[ing] foot ball. Your friend Andw. [?] [?] Y.G. [?]
> Wash. D.C.

From	Andw. [?] (Your friend)
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright. Forest Glen. Maryland.
Postmark	Washington, D.C. NOV 24 12 PM 190[?]
Place	Washington, DC
Notes	comic Thanksgiving card; location is the postmark town. Postmark year reads 190- (last digit unclear); the 1-cent Franklin stamp (from late 1908) makes 1908 or 1909, read as 1909 - before the 1910s folder. The bottom of the message side is torn away, so the signature is partial ('Andw.' with initials and 'Wash. D.C.'). Mentions Fred's 'little kids' and football.

21. Joyful New Year Greeting, Jan. 1, poinsettias and snowy cottage

December 24, 1909 · Fred was 15 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908

> You better be a good boy or Santa Clause will not bring you anything good
> Received your postal the 23 and was pleased to hear from you [?]
> Alfred.

From	Alfred
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright Forest Glen Maryland.
Postmark	Washington, D.C. DEC 24 2-PM 1909
Place	Washington, DC
Notes	Second note written up the left margin; corner torn there, so its last line is partly lost. Probably the same Alfred as 'Alfred W. S.' on 1909_Postcards_0003. Picture side has a torn patch at lower right.

22. Loving Easter Greetings, baby in an egg with chicks

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year · 1¢ George Washington, 1912 design

O.K.
Can you still keep your eyes on them all? Best love - Lucy.

From	Lucy Fred's sister
To	Mr. Fred Wright Maryland Agricultural College College Park Maryland
Postmark	Austin, Tex. APR 1 6 PM (no year)
Place	Austin, TX
Notes	greeting card; location is the postmark town. Postmark has no year; the 1-cent Washington stamp (issued 1912) and the address at Maryland Agricultural College, College Park (name used until 1916) suggest April 1912-1916. 'O.K.' written at top in a different ink. Sent from Austin, Texas.

23. Girl with dog on a chair

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Dear Fred I'm having a good time in Washington. and hope you and Carl are [?]ts. From your Frances Jetmore.
> [no stamp or postmark]

From	Frances Jetmore
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Forest Glen Md.
Place	Washington, DC
Notes	greeting/photo card; no stamp or postmark (probably hand-delivered or sent in an envelope), so location is the town the writer names (Washington). One line at the left edge is partly lost ('[?]ts.'). Signature read as 'Frances Getmore' (uncertain). Child's handwriting.

24. Moonlight on the Beach, Ocean View, Va.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year · [1¢ George Washington, 1912 design]

> B.H.

From	B.H.
To	Mr. Fred Wright Forest Glen Maryland.
Postmark	Ocean View, Va. AUG 2[?] (year not legible)
Place	Ocean View, Norfolk, VA
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Message is only the initials B.H. Postmark mostly on the stamp; the 1-cent Washington stamp (1912 or later) puts it in August 1912-1919.

25. A Merry Christmas, poinsettias and star

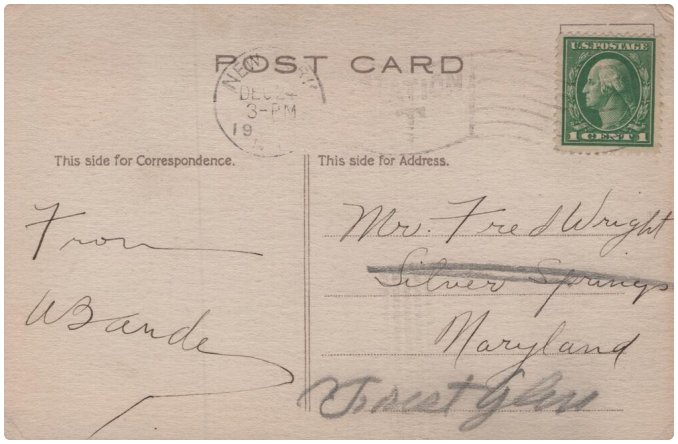
1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year · [1¢ George Washington, 1912 design]



From W. Bande [?]

From	W. Bande [?]
To	Mr. Fred Wright Silver Springs (crossed out) Maryland Forest Glen (added in pencil)
Postmark	New York, N.Y. Station T DEC 24 3 PM 19[?]
Place	New York, NY
Notes	greeting card; location is the postmark town. Postmark year blank; the Washington stamp and S. Bergman 191? copyright suggest about 1913-1919. Addressed to Silver Springs, crossed out and redirected to Forest Glen in pencil. Signature uncertain ('W. Bande' or 'U. Bande').

26. William Penn's House, Fairmount Park, Phila.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Dear Fred, I suppose you are still running about with Willie and having a fine time. I am well and having a good time. I should love to hear from you sometime. Cousin Eleanor

From	Cousin Eleanor Fred's cousin
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Forest Glen, Mont. Co. Md.
Postmark	illegible OCT 2[?] 6:30 PM (no year legible)
Place	William Penn's House, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, PA
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Undivided-back card ('This side for the address'), message written on the picture side; that style suggests before 1907, so this may be earlier than the folder. Stamp missing. Sender is Fred's cousin Eleanor; mentions Willie.

27. Boat Landing, Willow Grove Park, Pa.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Of course this is a view in summer. Willow Grove doesn't look like that now I can tell you
> Lilian
> [no stamp or postmark]

From	Lilian
To	Mr. Fred Wright, Forest Glen, Md.
Place	Willow Grove Park, Willow Grove, PA
Notes	view card; location is the picture. No stamp or postmark (probably sent in an envelope); written in winter. Signed Lilian (the y of 'you' above runs into it); same hand as Lilian L. Webb's cards.

28. Grant's Tomb and Palisades, New York City.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> This is a fine view isn't it? I tried to find another one of Riverside Drive. But couldn't -
> B[?]
> [no address, stamp or postmark]

From B[?]

Place Grant's Tomb, Riverside Drive, New York, NY

Notes view card; location is the picture. Never mailed: the message is written across the address half and there is no addressee, so presumably sent in an envelope or given to Fred. Signature is a single letter, probably B, at the card edge; possibly the same New York trip as 0064 (R.P., which mentions Riverside Drive).

29. A Happy Easter, children with egg basket and rabbits

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> With love - Lucy.
> [no stamp or postmark]

From	Lucy Fred's sister
To	Fred
Notes	greeting card; no postmark, addressed only 'Fred', so hand-delivered or sent in an envelope; no place known. Signed by H. F. Lehmann (artist). Probably the same Lucy as 0074 (Austin, Tex.). Foxing on the message side.

30. Roycroft motto card, 'Graft … Skidoo' by Fra Elbertus

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [Roycroft orb-and-cross mark]

From Roycroft motto card (no sender)

Notes only one file: this is the printed side of a small Roycroft (Elbert Hubbard, 'Fra Elbertus') motto card, not a mailed postcard; no message side was scanned. 'Skidoo' slang dates it to about 1906-1910.

31. C.H.S. B.B. Team.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [blank: no message, address or postmark]

From unused real-photo postcard (no sender)

Notes real-photo postcard of a high-school baseball team (about 20 players in uniforms with a C, and a man in a bowler hat) on school steps; captioned 'C.H.S. B.B. Team.' in white. Message side blank, so no sender or place; C.H.S. could be the school of one of Fred's correspondents (e.g. Clarksburg High School, cf. 0081) - unconfirmed.

32. Large frame house with porch and three-story wing

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [blank: no message, address or postmark]

From unused postcard (no sender)

Notes unlabeled halftone view of a two-story house with a wide porch beside a taller three-story frame building among bare trees; no caption and a blank back. Could be a Forest Glen or school/sanitarium building - unconfirmed.

33. Boardwalk and Pavilion, Colonial Beach, Va.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year · [1¢ George Washington, 1912 design]

> Dear Fred, Am having a fine time. Wish you were here. Harriet.
> ; picture side, handwritten: 'This is how far I went in' with an X marking the spot

From	Harriet
To	Mr. Fred Wright, Linden (crossed out) Forest Glen (added) Maryland.
Postmark	Colo[nial Beach, Va.] AUG 2 (year not legible)
Place	Boardwalk and Pavilion, Colonial Beach, VA
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Postmark year illegible; 1-cent Washington stamp means 1912 or later (August 1912-1919). Addressed first to 'Linden' (Linden, Md., next to Forest Glen), crossed out and redirected to Forest Glen. On the picture side Harriet wrote 'This is how far I went in', with an X on the wet sand short of the water: she barely got her feet wet.

34. Easter verse card, flower bouquet

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Dear Brother, Glad to receive your nice letter and to know that all goes well with you. Hope you continue in good health. With love Katharine.
> [no address, stamp or postmark]

From Katharine Fred's sister

Notes small Easter greeting card (not a mailed postcard: no address side, so sent in an envelope); no place. Sender is Fred's sister Katharine ('Dear Brother'); cf. 'Give my love to Katherine' on 0068. Card style looks 1920s, so possibly later than the folder.

35. Torn corner of a greeting card

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [fragment only: printed '...meet, ...thought ...' on the picture side; the other side shows only part of a 1-cent green Washington stamp with a cancel]

From unknown (fragment)

Notes only a torn corner of a greeting card survives (red-and-white border, gold corner, blue ground with red flowers, part of a printed verse). The back scan shows a piece of a 1-cent Washington stamp (1912 or later), smeared by the scanner. No sender, address or postmark.

36. New Year Greetings (sailing ship, candles and holly)

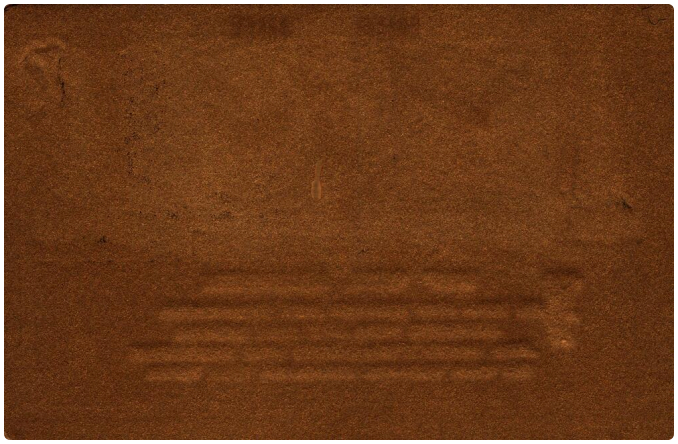
1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year



Mr. & Mrs. Fred L. Wyman [?]
[no address, stamp or postmark; back is blank bronze card stock]

From greeting card from Mr. & Mrs. Fred L. Wyman [?]

Notes New Year greeting card (not a postcard: bronze stock, blank back, so sent in an envelope); signed in purple ink on the picture side; signature hard to read (surname Wyman or Wynan; could even be a Wright couple). Arts-and-crafts style suggests 1915-1925. No place.

37. Wishing you a Merry Christmas (Santa with holly)

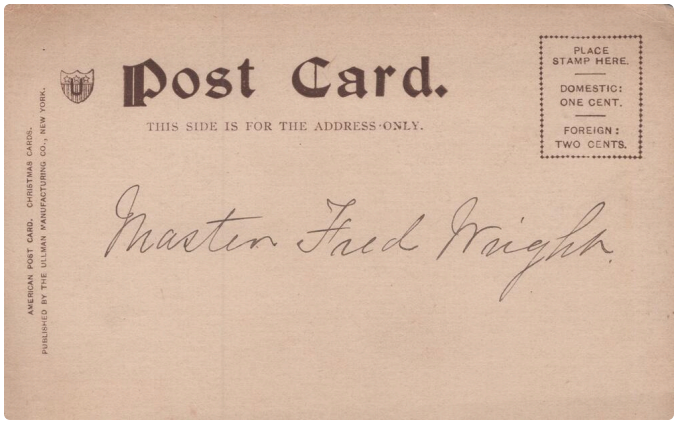
1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year



> [no message, stamp or postmark]

From	Christmas card to Master Fred Wright (sender not named)
To	Master Fred Wright
Notes	undivided-back Christmas card, copyright 1906, addressed only to 'Master Fred Wright' (so Fred was a boy) and hand-delivered; no message or sender. Likely Christmas 1906 or 1907, earlier than the 1910s folder; no postmark, so not marked misfiled. Glitter partly flaked off.

38. A hearty New Year's Greeting with Love (snowy cottages, holly, wax seal)

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [blank: no message, address or postmark]

From	unused postcard (no sender)
Notes	unused embossed New Year card; blank back.

39. Birthday Greetings (garden with birdhouse)

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Florence.

From	greeting card from Florence
Notes	only one file (the _b scan, no plain file): a small birthday greeting card signed 'Florence' on the printed side; no message/address side was scanned. Style suggests the 1920s. Addressee not named (presumably Fred).

40. These Bluebirds come to wish you a Happy Birthday

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> [blank: no message, address or postmark]

From unused postcard (no sender)

Notes unused birthday card (swallows drawn as 'bluebirds'); blank back.

41. May this Christmas be indeed a Merry Christmas

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Fred W.

From Christmas card signed by Fred W.

Notes small embossed Christmas card (not a postcard) signed 'Fred W.' - apparently one of Fred Wright's own cards, kept or never sent. Back is blank (scanned with a white streak line). No place.

42. I've waited so long to hear from you, It makes a poor guy feel awful blue.

If you have 'straight' eyes you will understand the postal - C.
Montgomery Ave
N. Forest Park.

From	C.
To	Mr. Frederick Wright College Park (crossed out) Maryland Forest Glen Mont. Co. (added in pencil)
Postmark	Baltimore, Md. JUN 2 9:30 PM 191[?]
Place	Baltimore, MD
Notes	comic card; location is the postmark town. Postmark year unreadable; 1-cent Washington coil stamp and address at College Park (Fred at Maryland Agricultural College) suggest June 1914-1916; forwarded to Forest Glen. Sender signs only 'C.' and gives her address as Montgomery Ave, North Forest Park (Baltimore). Joke about 'straight eyes' refers to the card's cross-eyed boy.

43. Karnak Colonnades.

1910 (approximate) · Fred turned 16 that year

> Dear Fred - Here we [are ?] I have not forgotten you [?] here in the desert. [?] with my [?] off [?] to [?]. Our best regards to everybody and Catherine.

From	unknown sender in Egypt (signature illegible)
To	Mr Fred Wright Forest Glen Maryland U.S.A.
Postmark	Egypt (Arabic, illegible) illegible
Place	Karnak Temple, Luxor, Egypt
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Sent from Egypt (card published at Port Said); stamp gone. Message written sideways in faded, smudged ink and only partly readable; signature lines at the edge unreadable. 'Catherine' is probably Fred's sister Katharine (see 0092). Who traveled to Egypt is unknown - possibly Fred's father (cf. 0099 from Mexico) - unconfirmed.

Sincerely M. N. C.

From	M. N. C.
To	Mr. Fred. Wright. Forest Glenn. Md.
Postmark	Frost[burg], Md. (partly legible) JU[?] (rest hidden)
Place	Frostburg, MD
Notes	comic card; location is the postmark town (read 'FROS...', most likely Frostburg, Md.). Initials M. N. C. uncertain (could be M. H. C.). 1-cent Franklin stamp (1908-1912) and the airplane theme suggest about 1910-1912. Stamp affixed upside down (a postcard 'stamp language' sign, perhaps 'I love you').

45. A Dream of Idle Hours (pipe dreams)

February 1910 · Fred was 15 · 1¢ Benjamin Franklin, Washington–Franklin issue of 1908

> Am I ever going to hear from you or have you forgotten that I exist?? I started you a letter some time ago, but as something always butted in when I started to finish it, it remains uncompleted. Anyway my intentions are good [rest cut off at card edge]

From	unknown sender (unsigned)
To	Mr. Fred Wright. Carroll Springs Sanitarium Forest Glen Md.
Postmark	Overbrook, Pa. FEB [?] 7:30 P 19[10]
Place	Overbrook, Philadelphia, PA
Notes	art card; location is the postmark town. Year digits faint, read as 1910: the 1-cent Franklin stamp (1908-1912) and the Carroll Springs Sanitarium address match 0064 (June 1910). No signature visible; message runs off the bottom edge.

46. It Beats All! To my Valentine (Garden Truck series: corn and beet)

February 11, 1910 (approximate) · Fred was 15

From	unknown sender (unsigned)
Probably	possibly Maybelle or Lilian, by handwriting: an anonymous valentine in a disguised hand, mailed at Philadelphia Station O, which Maybelle and Lilian used, on the same day as another
To	Mr. Fred Wright, Forest Glen, Md.
Postmark	Phila[delphia], Pa. Station O FEB 11 11:30 A 19[?]
Place	Philadelphia, PA
Notes	comic valentine; location is the postmark town. Unsigned and year blank in the postmark; month and day from the postmark, year from the folder. Same Philadelphia Station O as the Maybelle Weber card (0079), so possibly from her. Mailed the same day and hour as 0096 (same Tuck valentine series), so the two came together; 0096's 1-cent Franklin stamp places both in Feb 1909-1912. Upper right corner torn away with the stamp.

From	Maybelle
To	Mr. Fred Wright, Forest Glen, Md.
Postmark	Philadelphia, Pa. Station O SEP 18 10 PM 19[?] (year blank)
Place	Independence Hall, Philadelphia, PA
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Year blank in the postmark; school 'started on Thursday the 8th' of September fits 1910 (Sept 8, 1910 was a Thursday), and the 1-cent Franklin stamp (1908-1912) agrees, so 1910. Maybelle (Weber) of Philadelphia is still a schoolgirl.

I wrote Isabelle, and she wouldn't answer, and so you'll just have to take my word - In regard to that "some one" "if you don't get my drift, I'll snow again", Get me? I'm so sorry my letter sounded cross, for you know I could not fuss with you. Fred, you ought to have been at the German and you wouldn't say anything about Manassas
Sincerely Dorothy
[picture side:] I reckon I won't ever see you again unless you come to Manassas as the Bissett girls are mad at me as they haven't written a word since I left.
They don't teach us here to use such words of comprehension as "Get me", so I learned this elsewhere.

From	Dorothy
To	Mr. Fred W. Wright, Hyattsville, Maryland
Postmark	Manassas, Va. MAR 28 8 PM 1913
Place	Agricultural High School, Manassas, VA
Notes	Message continues in the margins of the picture side. Addressed to Fred at Hyattsville, Md. (near College Park / M.A.C.), so by spring 1913 Fred was probably at Maryland Agricultural College. Dorothy, a student at the Manassas school ('they don't teach us here'), had been near Fred ('since I left'); 'the German' is a dance. Possibly the same girl as 'Dot' (1912 cards from Fortress Monroe) and the Mary of 1913_Postcards_0002 also wrote from Manassas.

Hello Fred:- As you see I have changed my address. So far I like this western city, but oh you Virginia and Maryland. I suppose I will see you at Cornell if not before. How is everyone? Please watch over the "one" (you know) till I can get back to Garrett Park. I see you were afraid to go to Manassas - it was too dark. I suppose you have heard about Mary Gedeon[?]. I think that is a thing of the past tho. Remember me to all - Sincerely yrs. Dorothy B[?]
308 S. 6th St.

From	Dorothy B[?]
To	Mr. Fred Wright, Hyattsville (struck out), College Park, Maryland M.A.C.
Postmark	Vincennes, Ind. NOV 3 1:30 PM 1913
Place	YMCA, Vincennes, IN
Notes	Dorothy had moved to Vincennes, Indiana (308 S. 6th St.) from Garrett Park, Md.; the end of the message runs up the left margin under the flag cancel. Same Dorothy as 1913_Postcards_0003 (Manassas), possibly also 'Dot'. 'I will see you at Cornell': Fred apparently planned to go on to Cornell (compare the 1917 Ithaca address on 1911_Postcards_0014). Mary Gedeon may be the Mary of 1913_Postcards_0002 (Manassas). Surname initial B (rest cut off).

Dear Brother,
You will see by the postal I am in Chicago. I came yesterday night to be with mother & the rest & to attend the service to-morrow. Some class to M.A.C. to beat St. John's & I am delighted over it. Also some class to you the way you fuss Betty. The cross on the picture [?] [?] [?] [?]

From	Fred's sister (signature cut off) Fred's sister
Probably	probably Katherine W. Wright, by handwriting: same hand as the 1914 card from Fred's sister and as Katharine's signed card (1912): the cross-shaped F in Fred; mailed in Chicago, where she lived
To	Mr. Fred Wright College Park Maryland
Postmark	Chicago, Ill. NOV 17 1:30 AM 1913
Place	Chicago, IL
Notes	Real-photo card of the grandstand at the Minnesota-Wisconsin game (Minn 21, Wis 3, Nov. 15, 1913, Minneapolis; 'Photoart 34'); a small x on the right marks someone in the crowd ('The cross on the picture...'). The writer calls Fred 'Brother', so she is his sister; she had come to Chicago to be with 'mother & the rest' for a service (a funeral or memorial?). The last lines and signature run off the bottom edge. Mentions M.A.C. beating St. John's (football) and Fred's girl Betty. Picture side torn at the left edge.

Place	New York, NY
Notes	comic card with a die-cut (pop-out) wing; written all over the address side in a hand-delivered or enveloped card; no signature visible (the end runs off the bottom edge). Sender writes from 1421 University Ave., New York (Bronx) - same unsigned writer as 0121 (1421 Aqueduct Ave.) and mentions seeing 'High Jinks' (Broadway musical, opened Dec 1913, ran into 1914) and Russell's wedding taking them to Baltimore by mid-November, so probably fall 1914; date from internal evidence, location is the address written on the card.

Notes	view card; location is the picture (Chihuahua, Mexico). From Fred's FATHER, writing from Chihuahua during the Mexican Revolution: 'Villa has had several scraps' (Pancho Villa took Chihuahua in late 1913 and held it to 1916), so about 1914-1916; year is an estimate from that, not a postmark. To	Mr. Fred Wright 215 Dryden Rd. Ithaca N.Y.
Postmark	Ro[?], Colo. AUG [?] 19[?] 8 PM
Place	Hermit Trail, Grand Canyon, AZ
Notes	view card; location is the picture. Addressed to Fred at 215 Dryden Rd., Ithaca, N.Y. (near Cornell University) - so Fred was in Ithaca at some point, probably as a Cornell student. Writer lives at The Tudor apartments, 63rd and Ellis Ave., Chicago. Signature looks like 'Kath' (Katharine?) - unconfirmed. Postmark year hidden; 1-cent Washington coil stamp means 1914 or later; month August. Katharine W. Wright lived in Chicago; the hand is like hers but not a close match (more upright, a plain F in Fred), so the signature and the Chicago address carry it.

Dear Fred:
Have been trying to get time to answer your letter but will do so later. Was certainly glad to learn that you are in R.O.T.C.
and hope that you will write and tell how you are getting along. Was in Balt.

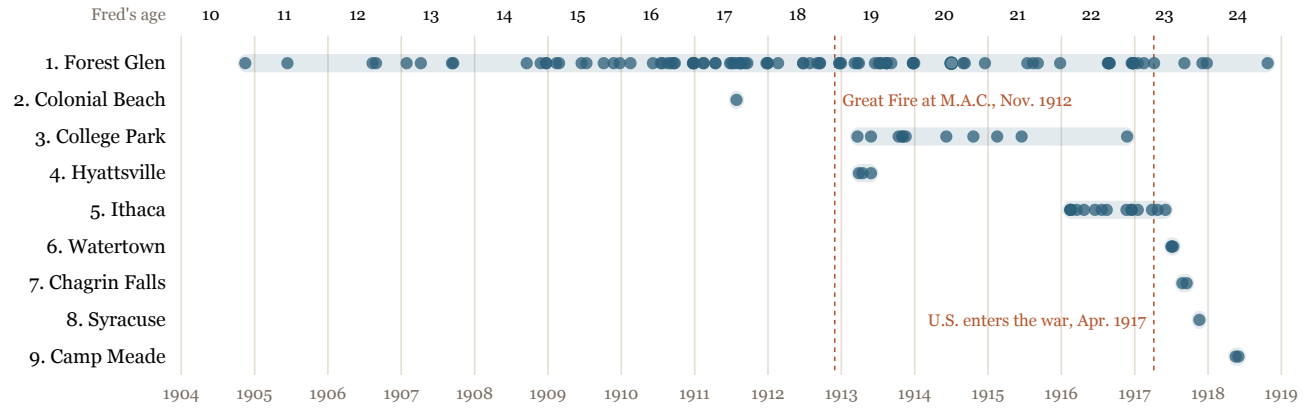
Where the cards found Fred

The addresses on the cards follow Fred from his parents' sanitarium at Forest Glen to two colleges, two jobs and the Army. The places are numbered in the order he reached them, and the arrows show each move; the Washington-area places are on the smaller map. A forwarded card counts where it reached him. Some details come from Fred's pocket notebook of limericks, a Prudential Insurance giveaway he kept at Cornell in 1916–17 (it holds Cornell Daily Sun clippings of January 1917) and until the draft lottery of July 1917; Rick Wilson transcribed it in 1996. Ages come from the 136 cards with a known date; the 25 whose year is only a guess are listed but left off the timeline.

Each dot is a card, placed by its date (hollow: the year only); click one to see it



1. Forest Glen, Md. ages 10–24 · 1904–1918 · 120 cards

Home: his parents' sanitarium (the Wright Sanitarium, also called Carroll Springs Sanitarium). Between terms and jobs the cards found him here again, at Christmas and in the summers. The sanitarium's telephone was Woodside 1 (notebook).

Cards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 33, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 94, 95, 96, 98, 100, 102, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 118, 119, 120, 121, 123, 124, 126, 127, 128, 130, 134, 135, 136, 137, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 155, 158, 159, 160, 161, 163, 164, 166, 174, 176, 177, 181

2. Colonial Beach, Va. age 17 · July 1911 · 1 card

A summer card, July 1911, to the resort on the Potomac.

Cards: 75

3. College Park, Md. (Maryland Agricultural College) ages 18–22 · 1913–1916 · 13 cards

The Maryland Agricultural College, 1912–1915: mechanical engineering, Kappa Alpha, cadet lieutenant, athletic editor of the 1915 Reveille. One card, in November 1916, still went to the college. His fraternity pin was No. 1664 (notebook). His draft card counts three years of military training in Maryland, as 1st Lieutenant.

Cards: 22, 99, 105, 114, 115, 116, 117, 125, 129, 131, 132, 133, 154

4. Hyattsville, Md. age 18 · March–May 1913 · 3 cards

Spring 1913. On the night of November 29, 1912, the Great Fire burned the college's barracks and Administration Building, and the cadets were boarded in Hyattsville, Berwyn and Riverdale. By November 1913 his cards went to the college again (one is readdressed from Hyattsville).

Cards: 101, 103, 104

5. Ithaca, N.Y. (Cornell University) ages 21–23 · 1916–1917 · 16 cards

Cornell, Sibley College, 1915–1917; Mechanical Engineering, June 1917. He roomed at 127 Linden Ave. (spring 1916), 215 Dryden Rd. (summer 1916) and 304 Elmwood Ave. (November 1916 to June 1917). On his draft card, in May 1917, he was a “Senior at Cornell University”. His notebook from these years gives his telephone as 141 Ithaca and, on January 1, 1917, his weight as 154 lb and his height as 5 ft 11¼ in; it holds clippings from the Cornell Daily Sun and his notes on designing shafting.

Cards: 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 144, 145, 146, 147, 153, 156, 157, 162, 165, 167, 168

6. Watertown, N.Y. age 23 · July 1917 · 3 cards

A job in the summer of 1917 (“so glad to know you have such a fine job”), at 311 Keyes Ave. His draft card, filled out in May, already names it: “After June 15th”, for Mr. T. L. T[omlinson?] of Watertown. In the notebook, on July 16, 1917, he wrote a name: “Florence Aples (sp?), 21 years old”.

Cards: 169, 170, 171

7. Chagrin Falls, Ohio age 23 · August–September 1917 · 2 cards

The next job, from late August 1917: cards forwarded from Watertown “c/o Adams Bag Co.”, presumably where he worked: the paper-bag mill on the Chagrin River (its history and photographs).

Cards: 172, 173

8. Syracuse, N.Y. age 23 · November 1917 · 1 card

November 1917: a card forwarded from Forest Glen to 317 City Bank Bldg.; a line above it, beginning “Camp”, is crossed out.

Cards: 175

9. Camp Meade, Md. ages 23–24 · May 1918 · 2 cards

May 1918: Private, 1st Battery, 4th Officers' Training School, 79th Division, Barracks AA-46; the 79th was a National Army division, made up of men drafted in 1917. Fred had registered for the draft from Ithaca: his card, filled out before an Ithaca registrar on May 24, 1917 and stamped June 3 and June 5, gives his home as Forest Glen (Montgomery County, precinct 2-13), and describes him as tall and slender, with brown eyes and black hair; single, no exemption claimed. Its serial number, 2006, is the “Draft No” in his notebook, which also gives the number drawn for him in the lottery of July 1917 as “5792? 6137”, and Van's serial, 1988 (Van's card is filed just after Fred's). At its end is an undated list of what he left in his “old room” at home: in a suitcase a knit helmet, wristlets and wrist protectors, a camera, drawing instruments and a slide rule; in the trunk his overcoat, a sweater, pictures and a baseball glove. An unmailed card from Ochtendung, Germany, written December 11–12, 1918, may be his.
