MRS. W. D. BORING[1]

Mrs. W. D. Boring, 95, died at her home, 112 W. 11th Ave., at midnight last night following an extended illness.

Mrs. Boring was the daughter of the late Thomas Hyder and Sophia Wester Crouch. A native of Washington County, she attended Boones Creek Seminary and Carson-Newman College, and taught school in Washington County prior to her marriage.

She was one of the oldest members of Munset Memorial Church and was active for many years in the Wesley Bible Class and the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

She was a life member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and did a great deal of mission work at Boring's Chapel Methodist Church which was named for her husband's father.

Her husband died in 1946.

[1] Obituary of Mrs. Myrtl Cordelia (Crouch) Boring, from The Press-Chronicle, Johnson City, Tenn., Feb. 25, 1965, from archives of Katherine Jane (Wilson) Mooneyham. Transcribed to computer 7/20/96 by Eric F. (Rick) Wilson.
Enclosed in a frame stating "Entered Into Eternal Rest, Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1965".

Survivors include one son, G. B. Boring, Johnson City; three daughters, Mrs. W. Lewis Smith, Johnson City, Mrs. Fred W. Wright, Nashville, and Sophia Boring of the home; two brothers, Clyde Crouch, Washington D. C., and Ralph Crouch, Boones Creek; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral is tentatively set for Saturday afternoon.

Morris Funeral Home is in charge.